The Friday afternoon bridge club met with Miss Mabel Green at her home on Poplar avenue today.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jasper Harding will return Sunday from their wedding trip and occupy their new home, 2519 Bryn Mawr avenue. Mrs. Harding will be remembered as Miss Phoebe Williams Adams, whose marriage to Mr. Harding, in St. James' Church, 224 and Walnut streets, was one of the prettiest of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman W. Cleveland, formerly of West Philadelphia, have moved to Bala, where they have taken a house at 24 Bala avenue.

CYNWYD—An interesting and exciting bridge tournament closed this week at the Cynwyd Club, when the 50 women who have been playing alternate weeks since February met to play their last game. For the last few weeks the scores have been very close, so that the names of the winners were the cause of much speculation on the part of the associate members taking part in the tournament. The high points, 3004, were won by Mrs. R. T. Tall, while the 10-point difference between each of the other three winners was rather unusual.

Mrs. P. R. Procter came in second, with a score of 1970 points; Mrs. Walter March, 1960, third, and Mrs. John G. Fleck, winning 1903 points. The highest top score for any one day was won by Mrs. R. W. Hays and Mrs. H. V. Jackson. The meetings were wonderfully well attended throughout the six weeks of the tournament, and the chairman of the Card Committee, Mrs. E. Newton Wigfall, and her assistant, Mrs. William King Miller, were unremitting in their efforts to make the first bridge tournament given by the associate members of the Cynwyd Club the successful affair that it proved to be. Mrs. G. A. Brooke was the well-chosen director of the tournament.
